

CONTINUING EDUCATION SPRING 2017

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- Registration and payment with the Continuing Education Office are required before you will be permitted in class. Instructors will not accept course payment or registration. They will accept lab fees only, where noted. Please adhere to registration deadlines.
- You will not be notified if you have successfully registered.
- You will be notified if you have been closed out or if a course is cancelled. In these instances, you will receive a full refund.
- We accept payment by check or cash only.
- Students of Continuing Education must be at least 21 years old.
- Registration by mail, via the drop slot or in-person is required for all classes, even those that are free. Use the form on the back page to register. No phone registrations will be accepted.
- If you are 60 years of age or older, you are entitled to a senior discount, where noted.
- Classes will not run if Hamburg Central School District's day or evening activities are cancelled due to inclement weather. In the event of such closing, you should attend the next scheduled class. In the case of single classes, you will be notified of a rescheduled date.
- Once class begins, there are no refunds except for verified medical conditions.

REGISTER BY MAIL — We encourage you to register by mail for our classes. If you wish to enter the Administration Building to register in-person, please be aware that all visitors are required to show government-issued photo ID before being permitted inside. This is the same safety protocol that is in effect in all the district's schools.

MAIL REGISTRATION FORMS AND CHECKS TO:
 Hamburg Central Schools/Continuing Ed. Office
 5305 Abbott Rd. Hamburg, NY 14075-1699

Please register early, as some classes fill quickly or may be cancelled if there is insufficient registration by the deadline date.

ENTERING OUR SCHOOLS — As part of the district's ongoing security enhancements, only certain exterior school doors will be unlocked for Continuing Ed. participants and other visitors to gain entry to evening/weekend classes. At the four elementary schools, Continuing Ed. students must enter through the main entrance doors. At the Middle School, entry is on the parking lot side of the building, through door #14 near the cafeteria. At the High School, entry is through door #30 (gym door) off the Legion Drive parking lot. Thank you for your cooperation.

Music

INTRODUCTION TO ACOUSTIC GUITAR, BANJO, MANDOLIN OR UKULELE (M1)

Peter Mirando

Have you always wanted to play the guitar or other stringed instrument? If so, this is your chance to try in a relaxed, informal group setting.

The classes are intended to provide individuals the opportunity to learn to play guitar, banjo, mandolin or ukulele. With regular attendance and practice, you should soon be able to play many of the folk songs which are part of our musical heritage. The classes also include discussions regarding the basic structure of folk music and provide the experience of playing with others as a group. Completing the 10-week course prepares you to participate in the course that follows Acoustic Music Jam. If you wish, you may enroll in either or both folk music classes to either sing along or try your newly-learned skills. Students are expected to provide their own instruments. If you do not have one, contact the instructor (549-0864) for assistance.

ACOUSTIC MUSIC JAM (M2)

Peter Mirando

Do you play acoustic guitar, banjo, mandolin or any other acoustic folk instrument? If you enjoy playing or singing folk music, you are invited to join us for 10 weeks for an acoustic music jam. Music choices include traditional and modern folk, old-time country and bluegrass music of such artists as Bill Monroe, Bob Dylan, James Taylor, Kingston Trio, Gordon Lightfoot and John Prine, to a name a few.

The music is paced so that beginners, as well as more experienced musicians, can participate. The atmosphere is informal, relaxed and great fun! If you can't play an instrument, come and sing. Students are expected to provide their own instruments. If you do not have one, contact the instructor (549-0864) for assistance. Play lists and music sheets will be provided via email, so please be clear when writing your email on your registration form. A limited number of song sheets will be available for those who do not have internet access.

MINDFULNESS: A PATH OF HEALING (FN1)

Annette DeNies, LMSW

Mindfulness is about paying attention. It's about living your life in the present moment, rather than being lost in memories of the past or being overwhelmed by worries of the future. Come explore the practices of mindfulness and its relationship to our health and well-being. This two-hour session includes guided mindfulness meditation, mindful Hatha yoga and mindful eating. No previous meditation experience required.

MINDFUL EATING WORKSHOP (FN2)

Annette DeNies, LMSW

Mindful Eating is simply being fully present while we eat. It is not directed by charts, pyramids, tables or scales; rather, by your own inner experience as it unfolds moment by moment. Through mindfulness practices we will become more aware of our bodies, hearts and minds. Learning through our senses, we will touch-in on our curious and playful nature as we investigate our responses to food and our inner cues to hunger and satisfaction. Learning the art of letting go of self-critical judgments, we begin to experience more balance, choice and wisdom — enhancing our capacity to transform our whole relationship with food and the quality of our lives.

WELLNESS / FITNESS

In this 2-hour workshop, we will explore together:

- What is Mindful Eating?
- The Seven Kinds of Hunger
- Our Habits and Patterns with Food
- Big Three Cravings: Sugar, Salt and Fat
- Guidelines for Mindful Eating
- Self-Compassion
