WELLNESS & FITNESS

YOUTH MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID TRAINING (FN11)

Hamburg Central certified instructors

Youth Mental Health First Aid is designed to teach parents, family members, caregivers, teachers, school staff, peers, neighbors, health and human services workers, and other caring citizens how to help an adolescent (age 12-18) who is experiencing a mental health or addictions challenge or is in crisis. The course introduces common mental health challenges for youth, reviews typical adolescent development, and teaches a 5-step action plan for how to help young people in both crisis and non-crisis situations. Topics covered include anxiety, depression, substance use, disorders in which psychosis may occur, disruptive behavior disorders (including AD/HD), and eating disorders. It teaches about recovery and resiliency - the belief that individuals experiencing these challenges can and do get better.

The course consists of 2 hours of online pre-work (to be completed on your own before the in-person meeting) and 3 hours of in-person instruction. Cost includes a manual.

INTRO TO MEDITATION (SI12) NEW***

Richard D'Angelo, Life Enrichment Seminars

Almost everyone is familiar with the word 'mediation', but few know what it really is. What is known is that it can help you in many ways, but again, few people are familiar with its benefits other than relaxation.

In this class we will explore in depth not only what the meditative process is and how it can help you in profound ways, but also what your internal obstacles to the process are. You will better understand your natural resistance to it and why that resistance is there. At the end of class we will engage in meditation so that you can experience it for yourself.

If you feel frustrated and discouraged in life, this is the class you have been waiting for!
